Amendment Request: Open High School of Utah – changes to charter

Director Marlies Burns informed the SCSB of the changes that Open High School of Utah is requesting to their charter. Director DeLaina Tonks and Chair Robyn Bagley of Open High School of Utah presented their amendment request to the SCSB.

Carol Lear, representing the USOE, expressed her concerns in the changed application that would present serious concerns for the USBE, who ultimately has the final say in approval of state charter schools. Those concerns regarded: 1) parents on governing boards; 2) BYU, being a private religious university, is now driving the curriculum of the school; 3) seat time is the only accountability measure for student learning; 4) special education adjusted on student needs; 5) employees ratified by the board, as opposed to approved by the board; 6) transportation provided to those students on fee waivers for test taking.

After much discussion, motion was made by Member Scott Smith to recommend Open High School of Utah to work with the Charter School Staff regarding language of amendment to be further established and clarified before recommending to the USBE.

Substitute motion was made by Vice Chair Tom Morgan and seconded by Member Scott Smith to take no action at this time, and recommend Chair Brian Allen give direction to Open High School of Utah to work with the Charter School Staff regarding language of the amendment to be further established and clarified. In addition to the motion, Member Tim Beagley recommended Open High School of Utah and the Charter School Staff to take an incremental approach and to prioritize the amendments that are being made. The motion was carried unanimously.

Financial Request: John Hancock Charter School – purchase of My Access for 2009-2010 school year

Member Julie Adamic excused herself from this portion of the agenda, because of her association with John Hancock Charter School. Motion was made by Member John Pingree and seconded by Member Scott Smith to approve the purchase of My Access for John Hancock Charter School to allow the school to participate in Utah Write assessments.
